D-1 Koyasan Shingonshu Angoji Temple

It is said that Angoji Temple was established by a monk who visited from India during the Nara period. This miraculous temple of Kannon in the Yasui region is visited not just by locals but by people from all around the world. Additionally, a nationally designated important cultural artifact, a statue of Seikannon, and a number of other cultural artifacts are preserved here.

Fukuno Gottsuo Taro Root Festival

[Held every year at the end of November]

This is a festival that is held to give thanks for the year's harvest of taro roots. There are a number of taro based meals for sale like the taro soup, dengaku, and onigiri set as well as taro croquette and taro onagi sold separately. One of the main appeals of this festival is that you can enjoy your food while watching a live symphony orchestra or Japanese folk music.

The New Year's Great Morning Market

[Every Year December 27th]

The morning market has been around since Fukuno's founding in 1650 C.E. "The New Year's Great Morning Market" is an event held on the last day the market is open for the year and has become synonymous with the year's end in Fukuno. On the day of the festival, stores pack the main street near Fukuno Station to sell various goods for New Year's like vegetables or big wooden mortars and hammers for making mochi.

This is a town where history, tradition, people, and culture all intersect.

Since times of old, Fukuno has been the center of trade in the Nanto area, developing over time into the market town one can see today.

Here, the Yotaka Festival is held every May to preserve culture and tradition for future generations.

Fukuno Yotaka Festival

(Pre-festival: May 1st, 2nd Main Festival: May 3rd)

During the Yotaka Festival's pre-festival events, the illuminated lantern floats are paraded throughout town as the beat of Yotaka taiko drums and the shouts of powerful young men ring out in the air. The coolest part of the festival is at 11:00 PM on the second day when the different floats engage in battle with each other. People can be seen tearing apart each other's floats to the accompaniment of wooden clappers at this time. On the main festival day, floats from 4 parts of the town travel to Shinmeisha Shrine, and palanquins are carried throughout the town.

Sukiyaki Meets The World

[Held every year at the end of August]

Various artists come from all over the world to perform here in Nanto and hold workshops where people can experience things from different cultures. Additionally, there are performances from the "Sukiyaki Steel Drum Orchestra" and the African djembe playing percussion group "Salaam Aleikum!"

Nanto Chrysanthemum Festival

[Held every year at the start of November]

Flower lovers from all over come to see the roughly 30,000 colorful chrysanthemums entered in the yearly competition in addition to the flower beds, flower sculptures, and other beautiful exhibitions presented here. Numerous new kinds of products are produced and make their debut at the festival under the "Nanto City, Fukuno Brand." Additionally, the exhibition of play/city/santhemums is also a must-see.

A-4 Inokuchi Camellia Center

The "Original Strain Camellia Garden" here has been highly praised for its scholarly value; there are roughly 110 different genus of camellias from countries like China and Vietnam being raised in the garden. The center is especially known for its globally valuable collection of 30 different strains of chrysanthemum-camellias. The building is white and black as a basic theme with a modern interior design to make a super fashionable and chic center. The lobby is also comfortable to stay in, and the event hall is great for exhibitions and a variety of other events.

A-5 Akasabu Circular Tank Diversion Works

Akasabu Reservoir's circular tank diversion works is a place of infrastructure that takes the stored water from the reservoir and uniformly distributes it for irrigation without the need for any human assistance. The sight of water pouring from the circular tank is beautiful and definitely worth checking out.

A-5 Lake Akasabuko

This is a man-made lake with a circumference of 3 km at the foot of Mt. Akasobu. Here you can enjoy badminton, play putt-putt golf, use the pavilion, or simply have a great time outdoors as you take in all of the different seasonal views of nature. Additionally, the pond is also famous as a place to go fishing.
